Challenge Statehood

The “State of Hawaii” is coming up on its 50th anniversary of “statehood” next year. Ordinarily this would be a cause for celebration. But there’s a big problem. . . Hawaii is not really a “state” of the United States.

The truth is, the “State of Hawaii” evolved through a series of fraudulent, unlawful actions by the United States, beginning with the illegal take-over of the Hawaiian Kingdom in 1893. In plain terms, Hawaii was stolen and remains stolen property today.

This means the “State of Hawaii,” is a fake state presiding over stolen property and the people of Hawaii are the victims of an elaborate kidnapping. Any celebration of Hawaii’s (U.S.) “Statehood” is actually an attempt to honor the criminal conspiracy perpetrated against Hawaii and its people for 115 years.

The 1993 Apology Law (USPL 103-150) confirmed the assertions of Hawaiian Nationals (both native and non-native citizenry), that their sacred ‘aina (land), their civil rights, their culture, their standing as a sovereign, independent nation, have been blatantly violated by numerous illegal actions of the United States; actions that continue to this day.

The proposed statehood celebration provides an excellent opportunity to expose the lies and propaganda of the State of Hawaii and to challenge its very existence.

50 years of “State” FRAUD is enough

The 50th Anniversary of Statehood Commission, through the unlawful State of Hawaii will conduct numerous activities and ‘educational programs’ to commemorate its 50th Anniversary of Statehood between now and August 2009. It will celebrate the deception of its inherently illegal and hostile presence in Hawaii.

The “Statehood” celebration is insulting and absurd. The State of Hawaii is not, and never was, a lawful State of the U.S. It is a fraud.

The “state” is finding it increasingly difficult to prove its claims to title or jurisdiction in Hawaii. By celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Statehood, the State of Hawaii is inadvertently providing anti-statehood advocates with an unprecedented opportunity — this is the perfect public platform to challenge “Statehood” and expose the fraud.

Now is the time for Hawaii patriots and lovers of the truth to seize the opportunity to expose and stop the lie of “Statehood.” To be complacent would only allow the lies of the fake “state” to continue solidifying in the minds of future generations.

The time to challenge the veracity of the “State of Hawaii” is now!
